SECRETARY WINSLOW RESIGNS.

He Refuses to Further Serve the Price Library Association.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

TAYLOR, Pa., Feb 2 —At the business session of the Price Library
Thursday night Fred Winslow, the g-neral secretary of the associaton, tendered his resignation. It was a surprise to the members, as Mr. Wins-low was in his third year of office and he had filled it with dignity and grace, that the members cared not in parting with his valuable service. Every effort was used to have him reconder, but of no avail,

Mr. Winslow has been a hard, indus-trous and painsworking officer of the Price Library and it is with the deepest regret that he leaves. The association will meet next Thursday evening to elect his successor. Who it will be has not yet been onsidered.
